Dear Bart:

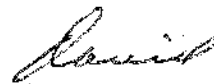

I was recently told that you sat with my brother-in-law, P. L. DeMarco, while he was terminally ill. I want to take this opportunity to thank you for this. I was deeply moved when I heard about it. I will always be grateful for this, and admire you, not only for this, but also for my fond relationship with you through the years.

By coincidence, his widow, who is my sister, is in the same condition, and we are expecting her to die real soon. I am reminded of a quote, but cannot give the author. It seems to fit.

"There are givers and takers in this world.
The takers grab a lot.
The givers gain a lot."

With the highest and warmest regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

David C. Rutherford
